

FREE Monthly Series

A Night at the Movies

Can One Person Really Make a Difference?

See the award-winning movie, The Witness, and be inspired!

Monday, October 23, 7:00pm

Woodbury Public Library

33 Delaware St, Woodbury, NJ 08096 • 856-845-2611

When the love of a tiny kitten transforms a tough Brooklyn construction contractor into an impassioned animal advocate, anything is possible!

"The Witness packs all the dramatic punch of an epic Hollywood feature... Deceptively simple, the film works on many levels, providing such easy and deep access to 'animal consciousness'..."
—SATYA magazine

"The Witness is a mythic story of relationship—about how the honest and simple affection of a tiny cat grows one man's heart so big that it spills its compassion all over the city of New York."

—Susan McElroy, author of NY Times bestseller Animals as Teachers & Healers

"...It may be the most important and persuasive film about animals ever made."
—Howard Rosenberg, Los Angeles Times

Free Vegetarian Starter Kits and Popcorn!

Presented by

Sponsored by

Vegetarian Society of South Jersey

PO Box 51, Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054

thevssj@gmail.com • 609-848-8341 • VSSJ.com

Follow us on Facebook and Yahoo Groups

Next Lecture: January 2018 - Details will be posted at VSSJ.com.